The Publishers of

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE

The fact that the SERIAL STORY for 1907 will be ANOTHER GREAT NOVEL, "The Fruit of the Tree," by MRS. WHARTON, author of the famous "House of Mirth," will decide the choice of a magazine for THOU-SANDS OF READERS.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus of other interesting features for next year.

are using this space in the hope that every family into which this paper goes will purchase a copy of the October Scribner.

Not because the October number is so much better than other numbers---IT IS vitally interesting --- but after all only a sample of the average issue of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE.

If you are not a Scribner reader, you should spend 25 cents for this one issue. Study it, and see if you do not think it about the best magazine you know---THE one you would prefer above all others for your family reading.

Do you realize that twelve numbers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE are the equivalent of about fifteen dollars worth of books, and that you get in them a collection of pictures that are a never-ending source of profitable study and entertainment?

Many are thinking just at this time of subscribing to a magazine for the coming year. If you know SCRIBNER'S, you will certainly include it among the magazines you CANNOT DO WITHOUT.

By SUBSCRIBING NOW you will get two of Kate Douglas Wiggin's most charming Rebecca Stories and

The Beautiful Christmas Number.

$3.00 a Year—25 Cents a Number.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, - New York.

Areas, and Its Cultivation

MAY BE SOWN IN THE FALL

Ground Is a Pre-

BON AIR SOCIAL

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Industrial Chapter will be held on Mon-

ESTABLISHED 1865. Woodward & Son, Lumber Merchants. Yellow Pine, White Pine, Hard Woods and Mahogany. SAW-MillS at Ford, Dinwiddle Co, and Chola, Amelia Co., Va. YAROS in Richmond and Man-dester, covering seven acre.

OFFICE, NINTH AND ARCH STS., Richmond, Vs.

RADFORD SOCIAL

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mrs. Barganife. in Richmond.

Mrs. John W. Hart, Muster Mossey art and must have returned to their one in Rediord City. They have been ford, Celebrate Anniversary. ford, Celebrate Anniversary.

Well Worth the Trip.

PEOPLE IN NEW KENT

Annual Meet of the Virginia-Carolina Fox-Hunters'

RACES AND TRAP SHOOTING

Orchestra Arrives From Washington for the Fall and Winter Season.

[Special to The Times-Duspatch.]
THE MECKLENBURG, CHASE CITY. VA., September 29.-The master of the unds, Mr. E. W. Overby, of Boydton, and Colonel Hughes, the president of the Virginia-Carolina Fox Hunters' Association, announce with much pleasure that all the rule oals in Virginia and North Carolina have consented to give special excursion rates to Chase City and return during the meet in October.

As the Meckindowy is the headquarters of the special conditions of the condition of the residence of the conditions of the special to the conditions of the con